

MELAKA Map & Guide

JONKER STREET
Jonker Street is the vibrant heart of Melaka City, where old town houses and shophouses are transformed into cafes, pubs and boutiques. There are also antique shops offering collectibles dating back hundreds of years as well as souvenir shops and hawkers' food stalls. Jonker Street is liveliest at night, especially during festive seasons.

ST. PAUL'S HILL
Aside from a breathtaking view of the city and its coastline, a walk up St. Paul's Hill will give visitors a sense of Melaka's history. When the Portuguese captured Melaka, a fortress and a chapel were built here, named A'Famosa and Nosa Senhora respectively. St. Francis Xavier, who regularly visited the chapel, was buried here in 1553 before his remains were transferred to Goa in India.

A'FAMOSA FORT (PORTA DE SANTIAGO)
The Porta de Santiago is one of the four main entrances to the A'Famosa fortress, which was built in 1511 by Alfonso d' Albuquerque, a Portuguese admiral. Even though the rest of the fortress was badly damaged during the Dutch invasion in 1641, its iconic gateway still stands to this day. The fort was saved in time from being demolished by Sir Stamford Raffles and his deep passion for history.

Shopping

Jonker Street (Jalan Hang Jebat) and Jalan Tun Tan Cheng Lock are known for great antique finds. The charming rows of Peranakan (Straits Chinese) shophouses that line these roads are said to contain some of the best antiques in the country - furniture, ceramics, crockery, jewellery, trinkets, old currencies, costumes and paintings, among others. Visitors can also find a variety of souvenirs such as T-shirts, mugs and keychains - some of which can be personalised to your liking - in Jonker Street. The Karyaneka Handicrafts Emporium on Jalan Laksamana has a good range of pottery and other handcrafted items, while Jalan Kubu is filled with shops that specialise in traditional Peranakan footwear and clothing. A wide selection of popular brands is available at Dataran Pahlawan, Melaka Megamall, Mahkota Parade and Jaya Jusco Ayer Keroh.

Dining

Melaka's unique cultures are reflected in its cuisine. Stalls selling all types of local specialties - Malay, Nyonya, Chinese, Portuguese and Chetti - line Jonker Street at night with their mouth-watering offerings. Other popular places where one can find a good selection of local specialties include Melaka Raya, Bandar Hilir and Jalan Munshi Abdullah. Among the must-try local dishes include Asam Pedas Melaka, Satay Celup, Chicken Rice Balls and Kembuli Rice.

Getting There

Melaka is situated approximately 144km from Kuala Lumpur, 90km from Port Dickson and 224km from Johor Bahru. The Melaka International Airport is located in Batu Berendam, approximately 10km from Melaka City. If you're driving, the North-South Expressway runs through the state and provides easy access to its attractions, which are located near the Peringgit, Ayer Keroh and Lipat Kajang exits. Melaka Sentral, the new bus and taxi terminal in Peringgit, is roughly 6km from the city. Malaysian Railway or Keretapi Tanah Melayu Berhad (KTMB) operates regular train services from various parts of the country to Tampin and vice-versa. You can take a taxi or a bus from the Tampin / Pulau Sebang Station, which is approximately 38km from Melaka City.

Getting Around

You can get a taxi at bus stations, hotels and shopping complexes. Please agree on the price before you get into a taxi. Another option is to hire a car and travel at your own pace. To get to attractions within and around the city, you can take the local buses or the Panorama Melaka tourist bus.

MALAYSIA

Situated in the heart of Southeast Asia, Malaysia is a vibrant destination with a diversity of cultures and traditions. This tropical paradise boasts pristine jungles and verdant national parks that are teeming with numerous species of birds and wildlife. Malaysia's sun-drenched islands and beaches are home to a stunning range of marine life. Its natural wealth is complemented by magnificent modern landmarks and heritage buildings. There is something to charm every visitor, be it a history-lover, nature-enthusiast, sun-seeker or an avid shopper. Explore the length and breadth of the country to discover the many attractions of Malaysia!

Melaka

Strategically located along the Straits of Malacca, Melaka was once the epicentre of an important trading empire which attracted thousands of traders from all over the world. Historical buildings and sites abound in Melaka, the birthplace of the nation's historical and cultural heritage. Remnants of its long and illustrious past under the successive rule of the Portuguese, Dutch and British are well-preserved and can be still be seen today, earning it the prestigious title of UNESCO World Heritage City in 2008. Beyond the historical crowd-pullers are scenic kampong settlements and a rich cultural landscape.
